San Diego and Los Angeles.

The Ohio brings us files of Los Angeles Star and San Herald to the 9th instant.

We are indebted to Adams & Co., for the early delivery of our papers.

The San Diego paper is dull—no news—but from the Los Angeles Star we take a few items.

About one hundred Indians from San Luis Rey honored our city with a visit yesterday. They came for the purpose of paying their respects to the Indian Agent, and to collect some presents. In accordance with the authority vested in him.

On Monday a race came off between Moore & Brady's horse, John Smith, and Mr. J. Powers' mare, Sarah Jane, for $2100 a side, which the horse won by about a length.

There is absolutely nothing worth transferring, beyond the above to our columns, from the papers before us.

THE NORTHERNER.—The mail steamer Northerner will be detained until 4 o'clock to-morrow morning.—This is done with a view of facilitating merchants in answering their correspondence by the Golden Gate.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—We are requested to direct attention to Messrs. H. S. Fitch & Co.'s sale of real estate at their auction room in the Mechanic's Exchange, at 11 o'clock to-day.

JENNY LIND.—This lady is about to revisit the United States, owing, it is said, to family dissensions, she being very unhappy with her liege lord and husband. It is reported that a divorce will probably ensue.

CUSTOM HOUSE NOTICE.—In consequence of the sudden death of Colonel J. A. Cost, Naval Officer of this port, the Custom House will be closed to day and no business transacted therein.

WELCOME HOME!—We are pleased to rate among the
