

Shasta Courier, Volume 2, Number 9, 7 May 1853 — Cram, ICogeri*
iV Co'* Kx|iri'io. [ARTICLE]

Back

Cram, Rogers & Co's Express.

It will be seen by the advertisements of this reliable and energetic Express firm, that these gentlemen, in addition to their Weaverville Express, have effected complete arrangements for running a weekly Express from this place, through the various important towns in the more northern mines, to Portland, Oregon. Messrs. Cram, Rogers & Co. are so well known throughout the northern mines that it is perhaps useless for us to say that they are always prompt in the execution of every duty connected with their business.

McGEE'S PITT RIVER EXPRESS.—The miners of Pitt River will be glad to learn that Mr. Jos. W. M'Gee has started an Express from this place to the Pitt River mines. Mr. M'G. is intimately known by almost every miner on Pitt River, and will be happy to attend to any Express business for them. See his advertisement.

TWO INDIANS HUNG.—We learn that the two Indians who have been kept prisoners at Fort Reading for some months past, for killing an American, were hung on yesterday by order from head-quarters.

This article has been automatically clipped from the Shasta Courier 7 May 1853, organised into a single column, then optimised for display on your computer screen. As a result, it may not look exactly as it did on the original page. The article can be seen in its original form in the page view.