

bunch of wild oats grown on Bowen's Rancho, in the Pacheco Valley, Contra Costa county, which measures seven feet in length. The Doctor informs us that he rode through acres of the same sort of grain in this valley, ranging from four to six feet in height.—Sac. Union.

TWO INDIANS HUNG.—We learn that the two Indians who have been kept prisoners at Fort Reading for some months past, for killing an American, were hung on yesterday, by order from head quarters.—Shasta Courier.

ARRIVAL OF FRENCH IMMIGRANTS.—The French ship Alphonse Nicholas Cezard, arrived at San Francisco on Sunday, with 232 passengers from Havre. Of these 50 are females, of whom 25 are Mademoiselles. The passengers are of every conceivable trade and profession.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—We regret to state that the Hon. Jos. McKibben, Senator from Yuba and Sierra counties, met with a serious accident yesterday, while riding on horseback. On driving into the shed attached to the "Nightingale," near the Mission, his right knee struck a post, which fractured the leg. The wound, we are pained to learn, will confine the Senator to his bed for several weeks.—S. F. Whig.

THE BANDIT JOAQUIN—HIS LAST MOVEMENTS.—The Republican, says our Monterey correspondent has conversed with the author of Joaquin's confession, which appeared originally in the San Francisco Herald, and was copied into the Republican. He says: "There is no doubt that Joaquin passed south through Monterey county, and probably took the