

are moreover in rivalry with the Yumas since the treaty, and doubtless profit by the vicinity of the post. The envy of the Cocopas was excited in consequence, and swooping down upon the Yumas in the night, they killed a number and brought off several women and children. About four years and a half ago the Yumas themselves made a foray into the Maricopa country and killed about a hundred in one night. The Cocopas, however, are another tribe who live about forty miles south of the emigrant trail and east of the Colorado. They speak the Yuma language, and the two tribes formerly constituted one nation.—S. F. Herald.

The Calaveras Chronicle says, it has been discovered in the deep diggings on San Antonio Creek that basins are found in the bed rock, in which it seems the gold has lodged. Where one of these exists, it proves immensely rich, while around the earth seems almost divested of deposits of gold.

DRINKING IN SAN FRANCISCO.—The Christian Advocate has found by actual count, the whole number of places where liquor is sold in this city, to be five hundred and thirty-seven.

The Nevada Journal estimates that four hundred Indians have perished, from the ravages of the small pox in that county, during six months past. But few whites take the infection.

SANTA CLARA DELEGATES TO THE BENICIA CONVENTION.—At the Democratic County Convention, held at San Jose on Saturday last, C. T. Ryland, J. L. Vermeule, B. Bryant, A. J. Jackson, and John T. Flournoy, were appointed Delegates to the Democratic State Conven-
