DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT YANKEE JIM'S—The following resolutions were passed at a Democratic meeting held at Jankee Jim on the evening of the 28th inst., at which Senator Gwinn was present and made a speech:

Resolved, That we, the Democracy of this portion of Placer county, do most heartily endorse the course and action of Senator Gwin in the Senate of the United States, and believe that his acts entitle him to the entire confidence of the people and to a re-election to the same office should he be a candidate.

Resolved, That we admire the honesty and simplicity of Wm. Waldo, who acknowledges that he has not read a book in five years; still we protest against such a man for our Chief Magistrate, and prefer John Bigler, who has thus far stood firmly at the helm of our government.

THE INDIAN WAR IN THE NORTH—CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS.—An appeal is made by Mr. McMahan, in behalf of the citizens of the northern section of the State now exposed to the immediate danger of extermination by the Indians.— There must be those who have the humanity and the opportunity to extend succor in this extremity. It is most important that relief should be extended at once.

TO THE PEOPLE OF SAN FRANCISCO.—
By the arrival of the steamship Thomas Hunt at this port on Saturday last, you have received intelligence of the resumption of hostilities by the Pitt River, Klamath and other tribes of Indians against the white settlers in the Rogue River Valley. The Indians are bent upon an indiscriminate massacre of the whites, and they have sworn to drive them from the northern portion of California or to die in the attempt. All who are familiar with the character of Indians inhabiting that region, know that this is no vain boast. They know that in battle there are no more resolute or desperate savages on the Continent of America.

I am and have been, for many years a citizen of the county of Klamath, and represented that county in the last Legislature.

From the period of the earliest settlement of Northern California by the whites the Indians have waged an incessant warfare upon them. They seem now, to have concentrated their forces, and to have suddenly formed the desperate resolution of utterly expelling the whites from that portion of the country.

The steamer Thomas Hunt, will return to Crescent City, near the scene of hostilities, on or about Thursday next, the first proximo. The settlers in Rogue River Valley have appealed and are appealing to us to aid them in protecting their property and their lives. Language would be inadequate to describe the losses which they have sustained, in life and in property, by the hands of these infernal savages; it is sufficient to say that women and children are butchered with the same indifference as men. I therefore announce to the citizens of San Francisco, that I am anxious to raise sixty volunteers to accompany me to Crescent City, and to render to the people of Rogue River Valley such aid as their necessities require. To all who are able and willing to join me in this expedition, I can truly say, that their aid and co-operation will be gladly received, and gratefully acknowledged. I desire to raise a company of sixty men: each man to have $200, and to be armed with a rifle—a Colt's pistol (if possible) and a Bowie knife. I am poor, and can promise no pay to volunteers; their passage in the steamer, which will probably be reduced, and their other incidental expenses must be borne by themselves until such time as provision may be made for their compensation by the State or Federal Government.

It must be remembered that Northern California is thinly settled by whites, and that a war of extermination has been commenced against them by several powerful and warlike tribes of Indians. This call is therefore only made upon those who are ready and willing to undergo the privations of a frontier life, and to fight when it is necessary. Should a company volunteer, they will of course, elect their own officers.

Volunteers are respectfully requested to register their names at Daly's Mountaineer House, corner of Commercial and Kearny streets, where a muster roll will be in readiness.

Editors of newspapers who are willing to aid me in carrying out the object indicated in the foregoing communication, are respectfully requested to publish the same.

JAMES McMAHON
