

Mr. J. P. Kimmel, Engraving Clerk.
Mr. Kelly, Engrossing Clerk.

“We omitted to notice, in our yesterday's issue, the presence in this city of the editor of the Butte Record. He is, unquestionably, a very clever gentleman, but blunders as a politician. His article headed “Senatorial—M stake,” was all a mistake; he certainly could not have been posted on the subject of the resignation and withdrawal of Mr. McDuffie.”—Marysville Express.

There was not a word in the article referred to by the Express, in regard to the “resignation and withdrawal of Mr. ‘MrDuffie.’” But the editor of the Express knows, if he knows anything, that it would not have done to have submitted the question of electing a U. S. Senator this winter, to the Democracy of his own county. We opine if even the erudite and profound editor of the Express himself, had have went before the people upon this issue, he would have been blown higher than a kite. We like to read lectures upon democracy, from those who never had a political opinion until they were called forth by the profits arising from the “stampact.” Singular, what ass-tute politicians a little government pap will sometimes make.

Mr. Editor :

I see in your last paper, an article under the head of “A white man hung for killing an Indian.” So far it is all true, but for the rest it has no foundation whatever; and your informant, or somebody else, must have guessed at it. The full particulars will, no doubt, soon be given to your readers.

It is to be hoped the particulars will be forthcoming soon. If we were misinformed, justice, both to the public, and those engaged in the transaction, demand that they should be made known. Give us a little more “light” on the subject.
