

two our nights and some of our days have been colder than ever before known, by the oldest settlers, in this portion of the county. We have seen on our ponds, in the neighborhood of Grass Valley, ice of sufficient strength for skating, breaking heads, &c. The thermometer, on one or two occasions, has stood as low as 20 deg below Fahrenheit, and yet the weather has been lovely in the extreme.

We should judge from what the Telegraph says that Fahrenheit was above cold weather.

INDIAN TROUBLES AT RED BLUFFS.— We learn from Mr. J. E. Magary, Adams & Co.'s messenger between this city and Shasta, that on Friday night last, a party of Indians made a descent upon the ranch of Mr. Rand, near Red Bluffs, and drove off six head of cattle. They also stole a horse and cow from another ranch in the vicinity. Marysville Express.
