FIGHT WITH INDIANS ON THE KLAMATH.—The Indian disturbances on the Klamath have assumed a very serious appearance. The Indians had an engagement with the whites last week, when the latter were defeated, and four of their number killed. The miners are greatly excited, and a general rising is expected.

THE BARK CAROLINE.—The Mexican papers, in grandiloquent terms, mention the capture of the Caroline by the Mexican brig Guerreros, as if some great naval engagement had occurred. The fact is, the crew of the Caroline surrendered her.

THE CHINESE AT GRASS VALLEY.—The miners of Grass Valley have adopted a resolution that no Chinaman shall be allowed, henceforth, to hold any mining claim, or work upon any claim, in the district of Grass Valley.
