

Shasta Courier, Volume 2, Number 48, 4 February 1854 — BY LAST NIGHT'S EXPRESS. [ARTICLE]

Back

BY LAST NIGHT'S EXPRESS.

We are indebted to Adams & Co's Express for Sacramento and San Francisco papers respectively of the 31st and 30th ult, being our very latest dates.

The investigation of the bribery case was not concluded. The Union says, "With the wealth and political influence of San Francisco against him, Mr. Peck's position in the Senate is very similar to that of the poor man at the frolic. Unless the mountain boys rally to his assistance, the money of San Francisco will prove too weighty for him."

The Golden Gate is again afloat, and will be placed upon the line again in a few weeks, in a condition almost as good as new.

The Union says:

A woman, named Julia Hayden, was shot with a pistol about 8 o'clock, on Saturday evening, by a man named Alex. H. Fash, on Fifth street, between L and M streets. She died yesterday morning about 6 o'clock.

FROM YREKA.—We are indebted to Mr. A. E. Raines, of Cram, Rogers & Co's Express, for the Mountain Herald of the 28th ult. It contains nothing relative to the movements of Capt. Judah. A report was in town that he had attacked the Indians assembled at the "Cave," and was repulsed. As the Herald, however, makes no mention of such occurrence, we presume the report unworthy of attention.