SHASTA.—The citizens of Cottonwood feeling deeply aggrieved by the repeated and continued aggressions of the Indians, have held a meeting to consult on the subject, and resolved to prepare for the defence of their lives and property.

The large ditch has been completed, and miners are doing well.

ROBBERY.—The Union gives the following account of a robbery committed on board the Camanche, on her way from Marysville:

“Just before the boat arrived at the Levee, the messenger of Adams & Co., proceeded to the clerk's office, for the purpose of getting the express matter consigned to his care, and was surprised to find the carpet bag or valise in which the treasure was kept, unstrapped. On further investigation, he discovered that about two hundred ounces of quicksilver gold had been abstracted, and immediately instituted a search for the robber. Circumstances tending to fix the offence on Mr. Harvey, clerk of the boat, his trunk was examined, and all the missing gold, with the exception of about seven penny-weights found therein. Mr. Harvey we
