

Shasta Courier, Volume 3, Number 4, 1 April 1854 — frsai ST role a.
[ARTICLE]

Back

From Yreka,

Jack Horsley, of Cram, Rogers & Co's Ex-press, has obliged us with the Mountain Herald of the 25th ult.

We perceive that our confrere, C. W. Thornberry, of the Herald, has taken unto himself a "better half," in the person of Miss Amanda Headrick. Happy fellow. Long may he wave. We'll give him a toast—fill up your glasses—all ready?—here it is,—“Plenty of luck and fat babies.”

The difficulty with the Indians of Klamath river, is about being amicably arranged. The Herald says they have expressed a strong desire to be at peace, and wished to be allowed to go to Fort Jones, and remain there until the Government fixes some permanent location for them.

The Herald advertises for a Minister of the Gospel, and says a deserving one would receive a hearty welcome. We trust some minister will go to that town. We can bear witness that it will not only prove a pleasant place of residence, but also, that a Minister of the Gospel will there find a splendid field for operations—there being thereabout a tremendous amount of “raw material” to work upon.

ARRIVAL OF THE BROTHER JONATHAN.—This vessel arrived at the Bay on Sunday last, several days after her time, bringing 700 passengers, of whom 197 were women, and 101 children. The delay was occasioned by a lamentable accident