

ulation, will do well to patronize Mr. Lewin, for the reason that, while other raffles give one prize in every fifty, sixty, and even up to one hundred and twenty tickets, the ticket holders in Mr. Lewin's raffle will draw a prize in every thirteen numbers on an average. That is the chances for drawing in this raffle are two or three hundred per cent. better than in the generality of raffles.

INDIAN DANCE.—Delegations from the various tribes in this County, assembled to the number of 500—men, women and children—in the vicinity of Spring Lake Ranch in the first part of last week, and from dewy eve till early morn, danced, hopped, jumped and skipped: howled, yelled and stunk. Those of the whites who witnessed the ceremonies and amusements of the occasion, were highly delighted. The whole affair was conducted in a manner very creditable to the efficient management, among whom we were please to see that prince of good fellows, "Heap-big-Indian-Chief," who is more particularly celebrated for having on one occasion stolen and eaten the quarter of an ox, accompanied with a very large basketful of young clover, by way of a salad.
