

can Eagle, when he said—"He sits on the top of the Alleghany, dips his beak in the Atlantic and his tail in the Pacific, stretches one wing over Canada, the other over Mexico, and grasps the continent in his claws!"

NUISANCES.—There are two or three Chinese houses of ill fame in town, established here since the miserable creatures have been driven from Broderickburg. Would it not be policy for our citizens to show these Chinese as well as one or two American nuisances, now disgracing Bidwell, the road leading out of the place?

IN CONGRESS.—Gen. McDougal, from the Committee on Military affairs, has submitted to Congress an able and comprehensive report in favor of paying to the State of California her claim for money paid for defending her territories from Indian aggression.

PREPARING FOR DEFEAT.—The Stockton Journal says—"in Mariposa County the test of politics will be Broderick and anti-Broderick, but in no county in the State is Broderick more unpepopular than in Mariposa." Du tell.

RAIN.—On Saturday, the 17th inst., we had a cool, continued rain, during the entire day. Is California becoming Americanized?
