

much for Miss Sally. Under other circumstances we might sympathise with the fair lecturer.— But California has been so bored with humbugs rigged out in boots and swallow-tailed coats, that really, even though one of that species appears enveloped in ringlets and calico, we find it impossible to invoke a sufficient amount of gallantry to choke off the immense disgust that takes possession of us at sight.

DENTISTRY.—Those of our readers in this vicinity who are suffering from imperfect teeth, will be glad to learn that Dr. Morse is now stopping at the "Eagle Hotel," where he is prepared to perform any operation connected with his profession. Dr. Morse has a reputation for skillfulness as a dentist, equal if not superior to any gentleman who has ever visited Shasta.

By reference to a card in another column, it will be seen that Dr. D. C. Burlingame, distinguished as a dentist, is now operating in connection with Dr. M.

 On Saturday last a difficulty occurred in the "Eureka" gambling saloon, San Francisco, between John York, long a resident of Shasta, and Grove C. McMichael, which resulted in the death of McM. from a knife wound in the bowels inflicted by York. The quarrel commenced about some money which York had loaned McM., and which had not been returned. According to the evidence of Mr. Owens before the jury of inquest, York committed the deed while McMichael was in the act of approaching him with an uplifted chair. At last accounts York had not been captured by the officers.

PERSONAL.—We are informed that Gen. Wool and Senator Weller, accompanied by several ladies, are now on a visit at the residence of Maj.

Reading. They will go to Fort Reading before returning to San Francisco. The gentlemen, under the leadership of Maj. Reading, intend spending several days in warfare with the numerous grizzlys in that vicinity.

It is also stated that Col. Henly, Senator Gwin, and Hon. J. A. McDougal are now at Tehama, and will start at once for the new Indian reservation in Colusa County, for the purpose of having a "big talk" with the natives.
