

this part of the diggings, permit me to inform you, that there are at least six thousand persons within four miles of this mountain city.”

A WINDFALL.—The Times & Transcript says that Mr. T. S. Campbell, an actor well known in California since 1849, has, by inheritance from a recently deceased relative in England, come into possession of a large property, amounting to over $100,000, and takes his departure for London on the next steamer. Mrs. Campbell, during her husband's absence, is engaged to play at the American Theatre, San Francisco.

NOT TRUE.—The Nevada Journal says that the report which has been in circulation for the past week, that Mr. S. P. Storms and King Weimer had been killed by the Shasta Indians, was a complete hoax. Mr. Storms was in Grass Valley on Sunday last.

SIERRA COUNTY.—In ten school districts the total number of children entitled to the benefits of the public school fund is 191.
