

Miss Pellett arrives with the maidens spoken of, he will whisper to one of them "that Mr. Dosh is 'such a nice young man.'" You might do so with truth, but then there is no need of it. We are capable of going in exclusively on "shape and talent"—we are. We cannot whisper the same sentiment into the ear of one of the damsels, in behalf of Van Choate. We would like to do so for the poor fellow, but our utter abhorrence of violating the ninth article of the decalogue precludes it.

YREKA AND SHASTA TURNPIKE ROAD.—The Company having in contemplation the construction of the above road met in this city on Wednesday, the 3d inst., and organized by electing A. M. Rosborough, President; J. Berry, Secretary; and Hugh Sticer, Treasurer.—Herald.

CABBAGE AS IS CABBAGE.—Mr. Cyrus H. Pickens, of Horse Creek Ranch, five miles above the mouth of Scott River, in this county, informs us that he raised from a piece of ground, less than one acre, thirty tons of cabbage. Some of the largest heads weighed 45 pounds.—Ib.

Some gentlemen of color have been stealing squaws from the Indians, and are to have a hearing this morning at 11 o'clock.—Ib.
