

State, they must do something toward allaying the present excitement, and, to a great extent, relieving the miners of the evil from which they now pray to be freed.

—In regard to the Pitt River Indians, it will be seen that the citizens of Pittsburg, and the surrounding country, in view of the absolute necessity of adopting some means for the relief of the Indians of that section of the county, have suggested to Col. Henley the propriety of establishing a temporary Reservation in the Pitt River region. They believe that in this way Col. H. may effectually secure the friendship of the Indians, relieve their present necessities, and speedily obtain their consent to removal to the Nome-Lackee Reservation. The meeting also recommended the appointment of John Driebelbis, Esq., as Sub-Agent for that district. This recommendation was not made unadvisedly, but was the result of the peculiar fitness of that gentleman for the position. No man in the country, perhaps, is better acquainted with the feelings and wants of the Indians, and none more capable of ultimately succeeding in removing them to the Colusa Reservrtion, if a few thousand dollars be at once placed at his disposal.— If Col. Henley has the authority to establish the proposed temporary Reservation, we hope he will confer the appointment as the Pittsburg meeting request.
