

Wells, Fargo & Co. have delivered Atlantic papers and California exchanges this week. They improve moderately in the list of exchanges they bring, and after two or three weeks more, will no doubt furnish the Chronicle, or some other paper, four days consecutively, in one week. May their shadow never grow less!

Lo! THE POOR INDIAN!— The Indians hereabouts united in a general fandango, on Monday night last. The performance is said to have been conducted in Digger style, but on a small scale.

The shipment of treasure per John L. Stephens, March 31, amounted to $1,013,560.

This article has been automatically clipped from the Empire County Argus 14 April 1855, organised into a single column, then optimised for display on your computer screen. As a result, it may not look exactly as it did on the original page. The article can be seen in its original form in the page view.