MESSRS. EDITORS:—I some time since published a communication in your paper, wherein I charged that two men, M. and C. had brutally murdered several Indians because they would not assist them (M. and C.) in prostituting their squaws. These men have replied, denying the charges, and making certain charges against me. These latter I do not think it necessary to notice, and write this merely as an introduction to the following certificate, signed by gentlemen well known in this community for their truthfulness and responsibility:

Wm. M. and C. have frequently stated that they had two squaws in their camp previous to their difficulty with the Indians. We have no doubt, from their own statements, but this fact was the cause of the difficulty which resulted in the death of several Indians at the hands of M. and C. We believe that the statement made by "Pro Bono Publico" in the columns of the Shasta Courier is true.

NEHEMIAH SMITH,
 ALEX. LOVE,
 J. F. BASHAW,
 GEORGE SAUL.

With this I will dismiss the disgraceful matter.
 PRO BONO BULLICO.

Religious Notice.

Regular service will be performed in the Catholic Church, Shasta, every Sabbath, at 10 o'clock A. M.

Shasta, March 31, 1855.

RALPH RAINALDI.
 Pastor.
