

Shasta Courier, Volume 4, Number 29, 22 September 1855 — Page 2 Advertisements Column 2 [ADVERTISEMENT]

Back

 The S. F. Chronicle, in speaking of Catherine McNevin, the beautiful and accomplished Cyprean who recently committed suicide in San Francisco, says that letters were found in her trunk, from which the inference may reasonably be drawn that she was seduced by a British officer now in the besieging army before Sebastopol.

NEW MILITARY COMPANY.—We are informed by Mr. Spriggs, Salmon Expressman, that a military company, consisting of fifteen men, has recently been organized at Sawyer's Bar, Klamath County. This company propose to hold themselves in readiness at all times to check and punish Indian depredators. We think it the best plan under the circumstances that could be adopted, for the preservation of a friendly intercourse between the whites and Indians in that quarter.

This article has been automatically clipped from the Shasta Courier 22 September 1855, organised into a single column, then optimised for display on your computer screen. As a result, it may not look exactly as it did on the original page. The article can be seen in its original form in the page view.