

THRIFTY.—James R. Nickerson, Esq., whose farm is situated on Doty's Flat Ravine, near the edge of the Plains, has peach trees on his place that have grown eight feet in height this season, from the seed.

Mining at Michigan City is being prosecuted with vigor, notwithstanding the scanty supply of water at the present time. The miners are digging out their dirt and heaping it for winter, when they expect to be liberally rewarded.

PENNY POST.—To the Penny Post Express we are indebted for copies of the New York Tribune, dating from the 21st August to the 5th of September.

Mr. Oberdeener, of the Auburn Book Store, will accept our thanks for files of Atlantic papers.

The Pacific Express were the first to favor us with the Atlantic papers brought by the Panama.

By Wells, Fargo & Co., we are in receipt of numerous exchanges from the East.

ASSOCIATE JUDGES.—Messrs. Finley and Frey were elected on Monday last Associate Judges of the Court of Sessions.

INDIAN MURDERS.—Three white men were recently murdered on the Siskiyou Mountain by the Rogue River Indians. Considerable excitement was manifested in Yreka in relation to the matter. Nothing but a regular "cleaning out" will satisfy those redskins.

The Placer Herald, a sterling democratic sheet, printed at Auburn, by Tabb Mitchell, has just entered its fourth volume, and comes to us enlarged and improved. We wish the Herald may live a thousand years.
