

TRAVELLING.—The North Californian says the arrivals and departures at Oroville, Butte county are about one hundred and fifty daily, by stages and other conveyances.

ANNIVERSARY.—The Masonic fraternity of Stockton intend to celebrate the anniversary of St. John the Evangelist, on the 17th inst.

INSANE.—On Wednesday evening Philip Stoner, Esq., of Michigan Bluff, arrived in town with a man by the name of Henry Stiles who has been deranged for several weeks. Yesterday morning he was examined by our County Physicians, and an order issued by Judge Hale for his commitment to the Lunatic Asylum at Stockton. Stiles was formerly from Binghampton, New York. He has been mining in this county, and has been rather unsuccessful. It is thought by his friends this has deranged his mind. Mr. S., is a very sober and industrious man.

SUNDAY LAST—our town was crowded with strangers. Chinadom was "full to overflowing." The late rains have driven many from the rivers, and those who are not returning to China, are looking for winter diggings or are locating in the towns to keep clear of Mr. Tax Collector.

CONCEALED WEAPONS.—The Sacramento Union is in favor of the passage of a law to prevent carrying concealed weapons.

 The Nome Lackee fishery, established for the benefit of the Indians on the Reservation, has caught the past season 5,088 fish, weighing, 10,531 lbs.

AFFRAY AT RED BLUFFS.—Thomas Stinson shot Isaac Nickell at Red Bluffs on the 23d